I Kara Barone have known Adolfo Diaz for more than 2 years now. Mr. Diaz is a wonderful son, father, and amazing provider. Mr. Diaz always worked hard to provide for his family and for his single mother raising kids on her own. Mr. Diaz has been through a lot of traumatizing experiences but still managed to take care of his family. We have been counting down the days to when Mr. Diaz can return home to his family. We have been waiting so patiently for his return. His son and step-children miss him dearly. When Mr. Diaz comes home, he is more than welcome to reside at my residence. We communicate everyday and we try to make visits but unfortunately, due to Adolfo being so far away from us, and work schedules make it very hard. I continue to wait for his return home as do the rest of the family. It will be the happiest day of our lives. Mr. Diaz helps the kids w/ homework, school and general advice. The kids look up to him so much. Please we ask that this man who has done so much time to have forgiveness and finally be able to be home w/ his family. He has accomplished so much and achieved numerous certificates and completion programs. He has changed and is still willing to take advice and strive to be a better man.

Kara Barone

Dear Brother,

What can I say.. me and the girls miss you so much. They always talk about how they used to have so much fun with you how you used to take them to the park and buy them ice cream. You helped me raised them when I didn't have anyone but you and mami. Best part about it you potty trained Leslie before she even turned one which was great! Your such a good father, uncle, brother, friend, and son. The girls keep talking about when you come out they want to go to the park and the pool with you like old times. When you come home my doors are open for you, you can live with me as long as you want I even have a job for you lined up. Hopefully very soon we will see you & hopefully you'll like it up here. It's nice and quite. We miss you so much and can't wait till you come home & we can rebuild the memories we lost through out these years. We love and miss you so much.
